

Maths Mastery in the Early Years

Maths mastery in the early years essentially means teaching for understanding, ensuring that young children have the mathematical competences and confidence which are shown by research to be key to later success, with pedagogy appropriate for young children.

©NDNA 2021 15/06/21/V1