Jack and Jill went up the hill,
 To fetch a pail of water.
 Jack fell down and broke his crown,
 And Jill came tumbling after.

Up got Jack, and home did trot,
 As fast as he could caper.
 He went to bed and bound his head,
 With vinegar and brown paper.

Extension opportunities

Extend this by looking at the baby sign language or actions for this rhyme as this will enable all children to act out the rhyme and be involved.

Home learning ideas

Children will enjoy singing this rhyme at home and you can use the home rhyme sacks, with the words to support parents and other family members to join in.

You may also choose to teach the parents the baby sign language actions by the use of the storybook, photos, flashcards, or videos uploaded on to your website to show parents how to make the signs in the song.
